....to inspire and challenge believers to seek deeper ways of serving Our Lord, to motivate all people to follow Jesus Christ, and to nurture one another.

Cultivating a Culture of Hospitality

“Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.”

Hebrews 13: 2

On Thursday, May 19th, the fellowship hall of our church was filled with the sounds of many flutes. The Columbia River Community Flute Choir met and rehearsed in our building, at the invitation of Jeanne Lodge. This was the first time they met within our walls, but it will not be the last. The flautists also plan to meet in our facility on Thursday, June 16, and Thursday, August 25.

Why do I mention this? Because it was yet another example of our church opening its doors to the community, as part of our ministry of hospitality. Our church welcomes different groups as a way of ministering to them, and serving the larger community. Here are a couple of other groups which meet currently:

The Gideons meet in our facility on Saturday mornings, as they continue their important work of placing bibles in hotels, and distributing them to schools, the military, and elsewhere.

The Ginko Mineral Society meets one Friday night each month in our facility, as they share together their love for rocks, minerals, and all matters related to geology.

Other groups which have used our facility in the recent past include Hispanic churches (not currently meeting because of the pandemic), The Wenatchee Valley Symphony Offices, two different Pinocle Groups, and a SAIL (Senior Exercise) Group. I have also learned that in the more distant past, we hosted a daycare for children.

Even on the day I mentioned, Thursday, May 19th, the church was used earlier in the day as the site of a LifeLine Health Screening Event. Lifeline conducts medical tests to assist in early detection of risk for strokes, heart attacks, etc.

While it can sometimes be a challenge to balance competing demands from groups wanting to use our church facility, and every request must go through Session for approval, we love having our church facility used! We have been blessed by God with a beautiful, functional, and accessible facility and grounds, and we want to share all we have with others.

Such a spirit of sharing is not only environmentally responsible, but biblical.

"All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had."

Acts 4: 32-33 NIV

May we continue to cultivate a culture of sharing, and hospitality at Faith Presbyterian Church!

Faithfully yours,

Pastor Jim

Property Improvements

Our church facility is sporting some new improvements, thanks to the efforts of your Property Ministry Team (Elder Scott Kruse, Ron Lodge, Ann Deal, and Loren Fischer). Meanwhile, more improvements are planned.

You may have noticed that our church sanctuary now has some handrails for the front steps. As you may know, we have had some people take unfortunate falls, due to the steps in the front chancel area. The handrails were designed by Ron Lodge, with the wooden top rails fashioned and finished by Fred Deal. Like many good improvements, the rails look like they have always been there, for the black posts and the wood tone color of the top railings matching other parts of our facility.

The flower beds of the church have recently been improved with some new edging, done by Jose Gonzales, of Gonzales Lawn Care Services. The razor straight edging looks sharp, and is a definite improvement.

Finally, the exterior peak of the sanctuary was recently painted by Curtis Gray (the Southwestern end, over the fellowship hall). This was sorely needed, as the wooden vent parts of the structure were down to bare wood in many spots. Plus, Curtis painted the vinyl siding as well, so the whole end is now one color. Although not always noticed, such work is important, and necessary.

Future plans for the Property Ministry Team include painting and repairing the rest of the exterior of the facility (excluding the southern exposure of the education wing, as that was painted last year by the visiting youth group from Canyon Hills Community Church in Bothell, Washington).

Your faithful giving to our church enables the Property Ministry Team, and many volunteers to maintain, and improve our facility, providing a venue for our many ministries.
